

About Us

A common divorce scenario: Spouses hire attorneys and go to war. Fees pile up and the family is drained. The nest egg is cleared out to pay legal expenses and the family is left with nothing.

Our solution: At Completion, we have checks and balances to make sure your best interests are the only goal. We're here to guide you through this safely.

Meet Michelle

Michelle is a mediator, collaborative attorney, the founder of Completion Law Firm, founder of San Fernando Valley Collaborative Professionals, and member of Los Angeles Collaborative Family Association.

Michelle's effective mediation skills and her calm and powerful way of being make her one of Southern California's most respected and valuable mediators and collaborative professionals.

Advanced Training

Michelle has participated in the Center for Youth Services mediation training, with advanced training in Families Able to Resolve Situations and Victim Offender Restitution Services.

She has trained in educational programs at Landmark Education for the past six years in areas of communication and human relations; There she empowers and enables people to fulfill on matters that are of interest and importance to them.

As a Landmark Education Self Expression and Leadership Program Leader, Michelle trains large group of individuals to engage their communities in leadership, making a lasting difference in their communities.

Education

Graduating from Southwestern University School of Law in 2001, she was a recipient of CALI Excellence for The Future in Family Law in 1999.

She was a member of Southwestern University Law Review from 1999 to 2000. She has been a Family Law attorney since December 2001.

CONTACT US TODAY

(818) 991-0519

hello@completionlawfirm.com

